

Southeast Regional Coastal Monitoring Programme

Annual Review Meeting - Wednesday 25 October 2017

Field Place, Worthing BN13 1NP

Meeting Chairman: Bryan Curtis, Chairman Southeast Coastal Group

10:00 Coffee

Morning session - project progress & new technology

10:30 Introduction and welcome Chairman

10:35 Programme progress T. Mason

10:55 Website update S. Geijsels

11:05 Asset monitoring programme update N. Watson

11:15 ASV Harry – seamless coastal monitoring S. McVey

11:30 Short break

11:40 How much sediment is there? Part I - HI1542 Isle of Grain to Leysdown
M. Wikmar (Clinton Marine Surveys AB)

12:00 Radar-based nearshore morphological monitoring C. Bird (Marlan)

12:15 Nearshore wave climate of England T. Dhoop

12:30 Discussion and questions Chairman

12:45 Lunch (posters, demonstrations, WMS, Fledermaus, SANDS, website, GIS etc.)

Afternoon session – applications of coastal data

14:00 How much sediment is there? Part II - BGS Tromino study update T. Mason

14:10 Habitat mapping of 2013 aerial photography E. Evans

14:20 Poole & Christchurch Bays hydrodynamics and sediment transport model
D. Robson (Borough of Poole)

14:30 Brighton cliff monitoring J. Gilham (University of Sussex)

14:40 Geobags trial (to be confirmed)

14:50 Questions, final comments Chairman

15:00 Close of meeting